WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 11, 1896

NO FAITH IN MIRACLES. Rev. Dr. Edward N. Calisch, the popular rabbi of Beth Ahaba syna ogue, delivered an interesting discourse on the subject of "Mystery and Mirsele" at the First Unitarian church Sunday night, to an audience that test-ed the capacity of that home of wor-

"I wish to say that it is with a peculiar pleasure I occupy this pulpit this evening." he said in opening, "for there is a kinship of reason between us. The Jews were the first Unitarians." Dr. Calisch then explained the sense in which he used the comparison, and stated that he did not mean to imply that there was any similarity between the Unitarian creed of to-day and even most "advanced" adherents of the Jewis I faith.
"The doctrines which I will endeavor to expound to you," he continued, "I have e-pecially selected because they are somewhat in sympathy with your

OWD. After directing the attention of his hearers to the common practice of confounding the two words, mystery and miracle, and usage of one as a syno-nym for the other, Dr. Calisch drew this distinution between them, defining each in its sense. He reviewed the miracles mentioned in the Old Testament, particularizing upon those of the burning bush, the curiog the leprosy of Naamau, and the translation of Elijah to heaven, and the crossing of the Red Sea. from mentioning any others than the miracles found in my own scriptures," the doctor said, and then he added: "I will say that I don't believe them. I have no faith in miracles. Everything in the existence of this world is governed by a grand law which is always the same. There can be no miracles, no contingency when the great Architect must alter his plans. God himself is compassed by the laws which He has laid down." The Christian religion, he recalled, was founded upon miracles. Buddhism was founded upon miracles is stupendous as those attending the birth of the gentle teacher of Nazareth.'

"Mystery we have," Dr. Calisch said, after denying the doctrine of miracles. The human mind is keenly sensitive and susceptible to the mysterious. Skeptical, material as we are, we are strongly impressed by things we can-not understand. There is mystery most profound surrounding the Deity. If he could be understood by our finite reasons he would not be Deity. Reason demands that he should be above us." Tie speaker summed up his argument on the subject by saying: "The miracle limits the wisdom of God, the mystery enhances it."—Richmond Times.

All last winter Mr. Geo. A. Mills, of Lebanon, Conn., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. At times it was so severe that he could not stand up straight, but was drawn over on one side. "I tried different remedies with-out receiving relief," he says, "until about six months ago I bought a bottle Chamberlain's Pain Balm. After using it for three days my rheumatism was gone and has not returned since. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by L. Stabler & Co., druggists.
